

PAUL OVERSTREET LIVE AT THE GRAND

Multiple Grammy and CMA Award Winning singer/songwriter Paul Overstreet will be performing in concert at Electra's historic Grand Theatre on Saturday, October 27th, 2018 at 7:00 PM. The concert will serve as a fundraiser for the continued renovation of the nearly 100-year-old Opera House.

Paul has recorded 10 studio albums and charted 16 singles on the Billboard's Country charts, including 2, No. 1 Hits. He has also written singles for numerous other country artists including No. 1 hit's for Randy Travis, Blake Shelton and Keith Whitley as well as hit's for The Judd's and Kenny Chesney to name a few. During his songwriting career, Overstreet has written or co-written 27 top 10 songs in the country genre, won two Grammy Awards and also ACM and CMA Song of the Year Awards in 1987 and 1988. Overstreet was named BMI Songwriter of the Year, five straight years (1987-91), an achievement on Music Row that has not been accomplished before or since.

Paul will be joined by "Jethro Twang" a group of area musicians who will perform before and with our featured artist. In addition, Electra's own Steve Staley Band will open the show, as well, a few songs will be performed by Robert Craighead an LA based actor and singer, formerly of Electra.

The Grand Theatre is honored to also have the great "Big Jim" Russell as our Master of Ceremonies for the evening. "Big Jim" is one of North Texas most celebrated radio personalities of the past 40 years.

Join us for what will undoubtedly be an incredible evening of country music and help in restoring this Texas Historical Landmark.
